Another Bold Robbery-Let Us Have Light. -Some time after midnight Sunday some one broke out a window, 30 by 40, on the north side of the store of Mrs. Mary A. Laing, on the corner of Hull and Sixth streets, and robbed the window of its contents. Since the recent window-robberies in the city Mrs. Laing has been in the habit of taking the goods out of her windows. The thieves secured only two bal-moral skirts, and did not venture in the store for fear of detection. The loss, except the window, is insignificant. Thieves once before entered the same store by the rear door, and on that occasion their booty was greater. Mrs. Laing will try and get a lamp put at her corner, and wift furnish the oil and have it lit at her own expense. The city seems powerless to protect its citizens against these frequent robberies, but the authorifies might restore the lamps, which would be a little protection.

The Funeral of Mrs. J. W. Bronaugh, Jr.-Notwithstanding the dreadful weather of Sunday evening the funeral of the lamented Mrs. Joseph W. Bronaugh was bergely attended from the Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock. Rev. William A. Campbell officiated, and made some touchingly-appropriate remarks. The remains were then escorted to their last restingplace in Hollywood. The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: Judge William I. Clopton and Messrs, Joseph Bryan, Augustine Royall, E. W. Weisiger, Thomas M. Fendley, Henry Fitzgerald, Robert B. Taylor, and William D. Tompkins.

The Hustings Court .- The December term of this court commenced yesterday at 11 o'clock. In the case of Henry C. Howlett vs. A. C. Attkisson, Commenwealth's attorney, in relation to the fees of the latter received in some cases last year, the Judge heard Mr. Howlett, and Henry A. Atkinson, Jr., for the Commonwealth's attorney, and reserved his decision in the case until to-

William A. Wyatt and Naney Ewell, some time since convicted of misdemeanor and sentenced, Wyatt to a fine of $60 and costs and Ewell to a fine of $75 and costs, were arraigned at the bar, and, being unable to comply with the sentence of the court, were committed to the custody of the Sergeant until the fine and costs are satisfied. The Court of Appeals last week refused to reopen the cases of these parties.

After the transaction of unimportant civil business, adjourned until to-morrow-Judge Clopton being a witness in the Ericsson case in Richmond to-day.

Case Continued .- Hamilton Smith (colored), charged with robbery at the Cedar-Works, and for whom a warrant has been out for about a year, delivered himself up to Captain Lipscombe Sunday. In consequence of the absence of necessary witnesses the case was continued until to-day.

The Ericsson Case .- The suit of O. A. Ericsson vs. The City of Manchester, claiming only $25,000 for injuries received by a fall near the Danville arch on Bridge avenue, is expected to be called to-day in the United States Court. Messrs. C. V. Mere-BLEACHED and BROWN COTTON at 3%, 4, 5 dith and George K. Macon appear for the plaintiff, and C. C. McRae, Esq., General T. M. Logan, and Mayor Clarke for the city.

Personal .- Mr. Josiah Moles, one of the oldest citizens of Manchester, died Sunday. after a long illness. Mr. Moles was a good man, and leaves a family and many friends to mourn their loss.

The principal of the High-School unintentionally omitted the name of Thomas F. Dornin from the roll of honor for last The many friends of Miss Lottie E. Con-cient committee will live in the hearts of all who attended the last hop at the Green House for the efficiency with which all the arrangements of the affair were carried out.

CARTLOADS OF MEDICINAL RUBsical troubles thus kept alive for years, when that peerless tonic stimulant and corrective, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, would speedily set the disordered and worn-out mechanism of the system in active and healthful operation again. It has been demonstrated over and over again that the requirements of the sick are answered far better by the Bi ters than by a majority of the miscalled remedies of the pharmaconwia. The stomach is strengthened, the liver regulated, the bowels put in proper order, the blood enriched and purified, and the nervous system rendered tranquil and vigorous by this inestimable family medicine and safeguard against disease, which is, moreover, a most agreeable and effective appetizer, and a cordial peculiarly adapted to the wants of the aged and infirm, delicate females, and convalescing patients. It is, besides, immeusely popular as an antidote to malaria.
